GENERAL

By this scheme Winkleigh Parish Council [“the Council”] delegates functions and where required by law cedes the same to officers.

By this scheme of delegation, the Council in pursuance of its powers under section 101 of the LGA 1972 [Local Government Act 1972] and in pursuance of its powers under section 15 of the LGA 2000 [Local Government Act 2000] to the extent of their respective powers delegate the functions referred to in this scheme to be discharged by bodies or persons and subject to the limitations hereinafter contained.

The scheme delegates powers and duties within broad functional descriptions and includes powers and duties under all legislation present and future within those descriptions and all powers and duties including those relating to the employment of staff incidental to that legislation.

The scheme operates under sections 101, 151 and 270 of the LGA 1972 [“Local Government Act 1972”]. Section 15 of the LGA 2000 [“Local Government Act 2000”] and all other powers enabling the Council and for the avoidance of doubt any reference to the Council shall be deemed to be a reference to the committee where the function falls to be discharged by the committee.

DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this scheme a function of the Council means any activity that the Council may lawfully perform under statute or common law.

OVERALL LIMITATIONS

Any exercise of responsibility for functions or delegated powers shall comply with:

- a. Any statutory restrictions
- b. The Councils Standing Orders
- c. The Councils Policy framework and any other plans and strategies approved by the Council.
- d. The current year budgets
- e. The Councillors Code of Conduct
- f. The Code of Practice on local Authority Publicity.
- g. Agreed arrangements for recording decisions.
- h. Financial Regulations.

The scheme does not delegate any matter:

- a. Reserved by law
- b. Which by law may not be delegated to a Councillor and /or Officer.

DELEGATION OF POWERS

In an emergency and/or Council meeting suspended/inquorate, the council delegate all statutory powers and functions (except those prohibited under LGA 1972 s.101) to the Proper Officer until normal council service is resumed

Decisions cannot be delegated to individual Councillors.

A Court can set aside any decisions made by a body or person not having the power to make them.

Local Councils may only do what legislation requires or permits them to do. With some exceptions, the Council may delegate some functions to Committees, Officers or other Local Authorities.

The aim of this document is to clarify the way Winkleigh Parish Council has delegated its powers and the authority to spend.

- Issuing press releases and statements to the press on the Council's known policies, subject to the provisions of the Council's Press and Media Policy.
- Updating and managing the content on the Council's website and Facebook Page
- Making arrangements for the maintenance of the office IT system.
- Disposal of Council records according to legal restrictions and an agreed retention and disposal policy
- Handling requests for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Data Protection Act 1998 and 2018
- in the first instance, acknowledging and handling all complaints regarding the council (except where the complaint relates to the clerk)
- Making arrangements for the routine maintenance of the Parish Office equipment
- Purchasing basic office equipment and supplies
- Arranging emergency repairs to the Parish Office equipment or other Council premises (subject to the council's standing orders and financial regulations.)
- Taking appropriate action arising from other emergencies (in consultation with the Chairman/Vice Chairman of Council as appropriate to the circumstances)
- Making arrangements to pay salaries/wages and expenses to all employees of the Council (subject to the Council's financial regulations);
- Dealing with day to day matters in relation to the Management and function of Winkleigh Cemetery, in accordance with the Cemetery Management policy
- Authorising routine recurring expenditure within the agreed budget
- Emergency expenditure up to £200 whether or not there is budgetary provision for the expenditure (subject to Standing Orders and Financial Regulations)
- Day to day management of Council property and assets
- To monitor all of the implemented policies of the Council to ensure they are achieving the desired results and where appropriate suggest modifications
- Acting as line manager of all employees/contractors/volunteers of the Parish Council
- To act as the designated person on behalf of WPC Data Protection Data Controller in accordance with WPC Data Protection Policy to be ratified

When the Council delegates a specific task or function to the Proper Officer, the action taken must be reported to the next Council meeting

Responsible Financial Officer (RFO)

The Responsible Financial Officer (RFO) to the Council is responsible for the Parish Council's accounting procedures and financial records and is accountable for the proper administration of its finances, in line with the current Account and Audit Regulations and the Council's adopted Financial Regulations. The functions and duties of the RFO are set out in the job description for the post.

- Proposing a budget to the Parish Council for the forthcoming year.
- Monitoring financial progress of the Parish Council's expenditure and payments made on behalf of the Parish Council, subject to submitting position statements to all ordinary Parish Council meetings.

Employment Committee

Decisions cannot be delegated to any individual Councillor.

The Employment Committee has the delegated authority from Winkleigh Parish Council:

- To advise Council on issues of staff pay and conditions.
- To consider and recommend harmonisation of the terms and conditions of service and pension provision of employees.
- To annually review and appraise the performance of employees and to recommend adjustment of salary to the Council.
- Chairman of the Council to provide line-manager function for Clerk, including responsibility for day to day matters, such as holiday, sick leave and absence from work.
